

Board Development Workshop

We invite you to join David Fishel for a Board Development Workshop on Thursday 4 December in Darwin.

This Workshop has been timed to coincide with the launch of the third edition of The Book of the Board. Written by David Fishel, this publication has become Australia's standard reference book for board and committee members of non-profit organisations. All participants will receive a copy of the book (RRP$59.95) when registering for the event.

Hosted by Arts NT, this practical and interactive full-day workshop will help board members of non-profit organisations understand their roles and to maximise the board's contribution to the organisation.

Participants will:

- Clarify the role of the board/ committee
- Have the opportunity to raise issues and questions of particular concern to you and your organisation
- Understand their legal and financial responsibilities
- Discuss the role of the board in strategic planning and fundraising
- Discover ways for the board and staff/volunteers to work together
- Discuss how to make meetings as productive as possible
- Consider best practice in board member recruitment and induction

The material for this tried and tested workshop was written by David Fishel, and has been delivered throughout Australia to over 500 board members, CEOs and senior staff of non-profit organisations.

CEOs, general managers and senior executives are encouraged to attend with at least one board member from their organisation.
